Tips to avoid loss or theft of personal data

- Understand what personal data you have and where it is stored.

- Check the security of the storage is appropriate to the sensitivity of the information.

- Have a clear policy about taking personal data off site and ensure staff adhere to it.

- Ensure adequate security is applied to devices, such as encryption or two-step verification.

ico.

Information Commissioner's Office